Chapter 10: A Wise lesson

Fill in the blanks

1. The God-fearing man lived in a town on a _____ island.
2. The husband believed his wife would give birth to a _____ who would be their comfort.
3. The wife warned her husband not to boast because the future is _____.
4. The dervish received a piece of cake and a bowl of _____ daily from the king.
5. The dervish stored his honey in a _____ that he carried on his head.
6. In his daydream, the dervish planned to sell his honey to buy ten _____.
7. The dervish imagined his cow would give birth to _____.
8. In his fantasy, the dervish threatened to beat his future son with a _____.
9. The dervish's daydream ended when he accidentally broke his _____.
10. The wife quoted King Solomon: "Do not _____ yourself, for you do not know what will happen next."

Choose the correct meaning for each word

1. Renown

a) Material wealth and possessions accumulated over time
b) Religious devotion demonstrated through daily prayers
c) Family traditions passed down through generations
d) Widespread fame and honor earned through achievements

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Dervish

a) A royal advisor who counsels kings on economic matters
b) A wandering holy man who lives a life of poverty and service
c) A skilled craftsman specializing in honey production
d) A wealthy merchant who trades livestock at markets

3. Pious

a) Excessively proud of their social status and lineage
b) Highly educated in philosophical traditions
c) Deeply religious and devoted to spiritual matters
d) Exceptionally generous with material possessions

4. Destinies

a) The future events believed to be inevitable and unavoidable
b) The predetermined rules of royal succession
c) The agricultural cycles governing harvest seasons
d) The legal contracts binding servants to their masters

5. Ploughing

a) The process of breeding livestock for desirable traits
b) The ceremonial blessing of agricultural land
c) The construction of irrigation systems for farms
d) The act of turning over soil to prepare for planting crops

Multiple Choice Qustions

1. Why was the husband's declaration about his unborn child problematic?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

a) Because he lacked the financial means to educate a child properly, making his promises empty
b) Because he arrogantly assumed specific outcomes about gender, health and legacy without knowing God's will
c) Because his wife had secretly consulted doctors who predicted complications with the birth
d) Because their island's traditions forbade parents from making plans before a naming ceremony

2. What was the wife's primary criticism of her husband's attitude?

a) That he valued male children over female children, showing gender bias
b) That he focused on worldly success rather than spiritual development for their child
c) That he spoke with certainty about uncertain future events that only God controls
d) That he ignored their poverty and made unrealistic educational promises

3. What psychological phenomenon does the dervish's extended daydream demonstrate?

a) Magical thinking - believing imagined events can influence reality
b) Catastrophic thinking - assuming the worst possible outcomes
c) Telescoping fantasy - projecting unrealistic future scenarios from present conditions
d) Confirmation bias - only noticing details that support his hopes

4. Why did the dervish's stick-breaking action carry deeper meaning?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

a) It represented how violence destroys carefully built futures
b) It showed how distraction during meditation leads to accidents
c) It physically manifested the collapse of his elaborate fantasies
d) It proved the fragility of containers made in that era

5. What makes the dervish's threat to beat his imaginary son significant?

a) It shows how fantasies can become destructive
b) It reveals his latent violent tendencies
c) It foreshadows his own physical accident
d) It contrasts with the king's kindness

6. The wife's reference to King Solomon serves to:

a) Establish her superior religious knowledge
b) Provide external validation for her argument
c) Humiliate her husband's lack of education
d) Transition to a new topic of discussion

7. King Solomon's quoted wisdom suggests:

a) Agricultural societies must respect seasonal cycles
b) Religious devotion guarantees favorable outcomes
c) Parenting requires flexible expectations
d) Humans should maintain humility about their limited foresight

8. What psychological truth does the story reveal about daydreaming?

a) It provides necessary escape from harsh realities
b) It can disconnect us from present circumstances
c) It helps to plan achievable goals
d) It always leads to creative breakthroughs

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. The wife's final lesson advocates for:

a) Humble acceptance of life's uncertainties
b) Complete abandonment of all planning c) Silent endurance of misfortune
d) Blind faith without any reflection

10. The core conflict between the husband and wife represents:

a) Faith vs. science in predicting outcomes
b) Certainty vs. humility about the future
c) Traditional vs. modern parenting styles
d) Optimism vs. pessimism in life outlook

LIVEWORKSHEETS