Chapter 15: The Necklace

Fill in the blanks

1. Madame Loisel was born into a _____ family but always dreamed of _____ and _____.
2. To attend the Ministry ball, Madame Loisel's husband sacrificed his savings for a _____ to buy her a new _____.
3. Madame Loisel borrowed a _____ from her wealthy friend Madame Forestier, believing it was made of real _____.
4. At the ball, Madame Loisel was the _____ of attention, receiving compliments from _____ and _____ alike.
5. After losing the necklace, the Loisels took _____ years to repay their debts by working _____ jobs and living in _____.
6. The original necklace was actually an _____ worth only _____ francs.
7. Madame Loisel's pride prevented her from confessing the loss to _____, which led to their financial ruin.
8. The chapter highlights the irony of Madame Loisel's suffering over a _____ while the original was _____.
9. By the end, Madame Loisel lost her _____ and looked much _____ due to years of hardship.
10. The moral of the story is that _____ and _____ can lead to unnecessary suffering.

Multiple choice questions

1. What was Madame Loisel's greatest dissatisfaction in life?
   a) She was unhappy with her husband's low social status and lack of ambition
   b) She regretted not being able to have children to care for

LIVEWORKSHEETS

c) She felt she deserved luxury but was born into poverty and married a clerk

d) She wished she had pursued an education and career instead of marrying

2. Why did Monsieur Loisel bring home the invitation to the Ministry ball?

a) He wanted to surprise his wife with an opportunity to socialize with high society

b) He hoped it would finally make his wife happy and appreciate their life

c) He was required to attend as part of his government clerk duties

d) He won it in a raffle at work and thought it might be valuable

3. How did Madame Loisel react to receiving the invitation?

a) She became angry because she had nothing suitable to wear

b) She was thrilled and immediately began planning her outfit

c) She pretended to be happy but secretly resented her husband

d) She suggested they sell the invitation to make money

4. Why did Madame Loisel borrow jewelry from Madame Forestier?

a) She wanted to impress her old school friend with her refined taste

b) She planned to secretly keep the jewelry after the ball

c) She wanted to appear wealthier than she actually was

d) She needed something to complement the new dress her husband bought

5. What was significant about the night of the ball for Madame Loisel?

a) She finally felt accepted by high society and admired for her

LIVEWORKSHEETS

beauty

b) She realized how much her husband truly loved and supported her

c) She discovered that wealth and status didn't bring happiness

d) She made important social connections that changed their lives

6. What did the Loisels do immediately after discovering the necklace was missing?

a) They searched their entire house and retraced their steps from the ball

b) They wrote to Madame Forestier explaining there would be a delay

c) They sold all their possessions to begin paying for a replacement

d) They argued bitterly about who was responsible for the loss

7. How did replacing the necklace affect the Loisels' lives?

a) They had to work multiple jobs and live in poverty for ten years

b) They became estranged from friends and family who couldn't help

c) They grew closer through their shared sacrifice and hardship

d) They eventually recovered financially but remained emotionally scarred

8. What was the most ironic revelation at the story's conclusion?

a) That Madame Forestier had forgotten about the necklace entirely

b) That the original necklace was fake and practically worthless

c) That Monsieur Loisel had secretly kept savings they could have used

d) That Madame Loisel's beauty had faded completely from hard

LIVEWORKSHEETS

work

9. What does the necklace symbolize in the story?
   a) The deceptive nature of appearances and material wealth
   b) The sacrifices people make for those they love
   c) The importance of honesty in maintaining friendships
   d) The fleeting nature of youth and beauty 10. What is the main theme of "The Necklace"?
   a) The dangers of vanity and obsession with social status
   b) The importance of being content with what one has
   c) The unexpected consequences of small decisions
   d) All of the above

LIVEWORKSHEETS