

Read the story and put it in order.

After 5 minutes, Maisa shouted, "I left the cake in the fridge!"
So they all drove back to the house to get the cake.

2

An hour later, Maisa said, "I forgot to lock the door!"
So they all went back to the house to check the door was locked.

3

After 30 minutes, Maisa shouted, "Stop the car! I forgot my handbag."
So they all went back to the house to get mum's handbag.

4

At the house, Maisa got her handbag and put it in the car.
Faisal drove away from the house for the third time.

5

One day, Maisa and Faisal decided to go for a picnic.
They packed the car and left at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

6

"You're right," said Maisa. "I know! Let's have our picnic here!
The garden is beautiful and I can't forget anything!"

7

At the house, Maisa got the cake and put it in the car.
Faisal drove away from the house for a second time.

At the house, Maisa locked the door and climbed into the car again.

But Faisal didn't start the car. "It's getting dark now," he said. "It's too late to go for a picnic!"
