

Name: _____ Date: _____

Contractions (is, not)

A contraction is two words made into one. An apostrophe (') takes the place of one or more letters.

Write the contraction on the line for the words in bracket.

1. "_____ this the toy you lost?", Henry shouted across the room to James. (is not)
2. "_____ my homework", said Sasha as she handed in her homework. (here is)
3. My baby sister _____ tie her shoe laces yesterday. (could not)
4. I _____ play outside today, I have to learn my spelling words (can not).
5. _____ such a handsome boy. (he is)
6. Brianna is not feeling well so _____ not going to school tomorrow. (she is)
7. "_____ Justin's book" said the teacher. (that is)

8. Ms. Brown _____ let us go on the playground because we were very noisy today. (would not)

9. I _____ gotten any sleep last night so I fell asleep in church. (had not)

10. The news reported _____ did not tie his shoe laces so he fell down on live television. (did not)

Write the group of words for each contraction listed below.

11. who's _____

12. don't _____

13. haven't _____

14. wasn't _____

15. won't _____

Congratulations, you are now...
"Contraction Karate Masters"

