Chapter 9: After Twenty Years

Fill in the Blanks

1. The story begins with a _____ patrolling the streets at 10 PM.
2. The two friends had promised to meet after _____ years.
3. The meeting place was where _____ restaurant used to stand.
4. The waiting man had a white scar near his _____.
5. Bob's scarfpin featured a large _____.
6. Jimmy believed _____ was the only place worth living.
7. Bob went to the _____ to make his fortune.
8. The friends last dined together when Bob was _____ years old.
9. Bob carried a handsome watch with _____ on its lids.
10. The appointed meeting time was exactly _____ o'clock.
11. Bob was willing to wait _____ minutes for Jimmy.
12. The policeman thought twenty years was _____ between meetings.
13. Bob described Jimmy as a _____ type of person.
14. The weather turned to a fine, cold _____.
15. The impostor Jimmy wore a long _____ with raised collar.
16. Bob recognized the fake Jimmy by his _____ nose.
17. The tall man revealed Bob had been under arrest for _____ minutes.
18. Chicago police wanted to _____ with Bob.
19. The real Jimmy was now a _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

20. Jimmy recognized Bob when he lit his _____.
21. The drug store was brightly lit by _____ lights.
22. Bob's hand _____ while reading Jimmy's note.
23. Jimmy couldn't arrest Bob _____.
24. The story is set in _____ City.
25. Bob came _____ miles to keep the appointment.
26. The hardware store doorway was _____ when Bob waited.
27. The policeman tried doors as part of his _____.
28. Bob said the West puts a _____ edge on a man.
29. The fake Jimmy suggested going to talk about _____.
30. The story explores themes of _____ and justice.

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the initial impression of the policeman as he patrols the streets?

(a) He is rushing through the streets, ignoring his surroundings.

(b) He moves impressively, with a watchful eye and a steady routine.

(c) He seems distracted and unaware of what is happening around him.

(d) He is engaged in a casual conversation with shopkeepers.

2. Why does the man from the West stand in the doorway of the closed hardware store?

(a) He is hiding from the policeman and doesn't want to be seen.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

(b) He is reminiscing about the old days and the business he once owned there.

(c) He is waiting for a friend with whom he had made a promise twenty years ago.

(d) He is observing people passing by to see if anyone recognizes him.

3. What agreement had the two friends made twenty years earlier?

(a) They would meet at a specific place at the same time, no matter the circumstances.

(b) They would write letters to each other regularly and meet only when possible.

(c) They would travel the world together and reconnect whenever they were nearby.

(d) They would only meet if both of them became successful in life.

4. What does the man from the West reveal about his life over the past twenty years?

(a) He stayed in the same city, working tirelessly at a local shop.

(b) He worked as a detective and solved high-profile cases in New York.

(c) He struggled to make ends meet and lived a life of simplicity.

(d) He travelled west, made his fortune, and became highly successful.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. How does the policeman react to the story of the man from the West?

(a) He immediately recognizes him as a criminal and arrests him.

(b) He listens attentively, shows interest, but does not reveal his identity.

(c) He questions the man about his journey and offers to take him to his friend.

(d) He shares his own story and relates to the challenges the man faced.

6. How does the man from the West recognize that his friend, Jimmy, is not the person who meets him later?

(a) He notices a physical difference, such as the man's height and facial features.

(b) He remembers Jimmy's promise never to change his appearance.

(c) He hears a different accent in the man's speech and finds it suspicious.

(d) He observes the man's hesitation in talking about their shared past.

7. What does the tall man hand to the man from the West at the end of their meeting?

(a) A letter from Jimmy, explaining why he couldn't meet him personally.

(b) A note revealing that the tall man is a plainclothes officer sent by Jimmy.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

(c) A photograph of Jimmy and Bob from their younger days as proof of their bond.

(d) A ticket to a different location, asking Bob to meet Jimmy there.

8. How does the story use the concept of time to develop its plot?

(a) It shows how time strengthens the friendship between two individuals despite their differences.

(b) It highlights how time creates a distance between people, leading to misunderstandings.

(c) It demonstrates the changes in character and circumstances that occur over two decades.

(d) It portrays time as irrelevant when it comes to fulfilling promises made in the past.

9. What moral lesson can be drawn from the story?

(a) True friendship lasts forever, no matter the circumstances.

(b) Loyalty to justice may take precedence over personal relationships.

(c) Promises should always be kept, regardless of the consequences.

(d) Success is meaningless without friends to share it with.

10. What is the primary theme of the story?

(a) The inevitability of change over time and the strength of old bonds.

(b) The importance of forgiveness and understanding in maintaining friendships.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

(c) The conflict between personal loyalty and professional duty.

(d) The pursuit of happiness and fulfilment through material success.

LIVEWORKSHEETS