

1. A clock is an (instrument, inch) for measuring time.
2. There are three feet in a (yard, foot).
3. The book on the shelf is six (feet, inches) long.
4. When you get (eggs, milk) from a store there are twelve in a box.
5. An egg box is a box (for, of) eggs.
6. Mary (keeps, takes) her money in a drawer in her room.
7. A yard (measure, measuring) is three feet long.
8. (Measuring, Getting) a man's foot gives us the number of inches it is long.
9. A man's foot is (long, short) when it is over twelve inches.
10. The air over a flame is (very, not) warm.

1. We keep (meat, books) in the icebox.
2. We put butter on (bread, oranges).
3. We make (cheese, potatoes) from milk.
4. We take the skin off (oranges, bread) with a knife.
5. Milk is a good (drink, glass) for a baby.
6. When the milk in her glass is (good, bad) the girl is happy.
7. A book which has one thousand pages is a (thin, thick) book.
8. When his bottle of milk is bad the baby is (happy, not happy).
9. When (butter, an egg) is in the warm air it is soft.
10. A book which has twelve pages is a (thin, thick) book.
11. A girl who has a new dress is (happy, not happy).
12. The cheese is very old. It is (hard, soft).
13. The milk was in the warm air a long time. It is (good, bad) now.
14. When the short hand of a clock is between five and six and the long hand is at six it is (five-thirty, five-forty).
15. The potatoes were in boiling water a long time. They are (soft, hard) now.