

MAY / MIGHT / COULD

1

Look at the following chart; then complete the exercises below.

MODALS OF POSSIBILITY: MAY, MIGHT, COULD.

SUBJECT	MODAL VERB	MAIN VERB	COMPLEMENT
I		leave
You		run
He	may	work
She	might	study	tomorrow.
It	could	rain
We		go
You		rest
They		sleep

P. 100 Grammar Booster: Modals of Possibility

2

Choose the correct option.

Luke: Hi, do you want to go out and get some lunch?

Lucy: Yes, that would be great.

Luke: I want to try the new café on the corner of High Street.

Lucy: Are you sure? It's very small and we may / may not have to sit outside.

Luke: Yes, that's why I want to go. It's autumn already and the weather might / might not be good for eating outside again until the spring.

Lucy: It looks as if it might / might not rain soon. There has been some rain this morning.

Luke: No, the sky is clear and you can see the sun. That will could / could not it warm.

Lucy: But there's a gusty wind that makes it a bit chilly.

Luke: We can wear out coats. It's been overcast for weeks. I want to sit in the sun for a bit.

Lucy: Ok, but if it starts to snow we have to go inside, alright.

3

Complete the sentences so they have similar meanings. Use the words in brackets and the correct verbs.

1 I don't know if the new science fiction film is out this week. It's possible. (could)

The new science fiction film could be out this week.

2 I sent Ann a text to ask her to come to the cinema, but she hasn't replied yet. (might)

Ann to the cinema.

3 It's uncertain if his next film is going to be good. (may)

His next film good.

4 There are two films to see at the cinema: a thriller and an action film. (could)

We a thriller or an action film.

5 I'm not sure if Rob will enjoy the new crime drama. (might)

Rob the new crime drama.

6 Perhaps my favourite actor will visit my town one day. (may)

My favourite actor my town one day.

7 Maybe the new comedy film will be very funny. (might)

The new comedy film very funny.

4

Guess who it is. Use might, could or may to do the following exercise.

1 He studied journalism and advertising at college.

He might be a marketing manager.

2 He wears a wedding ring.

.....

3 He speaks with an American accent.

.....

4 He gives a lot of money to charity.

.....

5 He travels to lots of film festivals for work.

.....

6 He has six children.

.....

