Question 32 [686363]: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 31) most appropriately.

A. I believe there should be some time to put our phones away and reconnect with other.

B. In conclusion, I think smartphones are essential for staying connected in today's world,

C. I hope that one day, we can all agree to use our phones less.

D. I believe that technology is making US more isolated than ever.

Question 33 [686364]: Growing up in a small village, my family was part of a minor ethnic group. Although we spoke the same language as most people in my country, our traditions were different. _____

a. Sometimes, people from the majority group didn't understand our ritual in those days.

b. We had our own unique festivals and ways of celebrating them.

c. Even so, I learned to appreciate the diversity around me and felt proud of my heritage.

A. a-b-c B. b-a-c C. c-b-a D. b-c-a Question 34 [686365]: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 33) most appropriately.

A. I decided to move to a bigger city where no one cared about ethnic differences.

B. Despite the differences, we kept passing down our traditions to the next generations.

C. Eventually, I stopped practicing my cultural customs because it was easier to fit in.

D. Unfortunately, our culture began to disappear as more young people left the village.

Question 35 [686366]: Living in a large city has its benefits, but public transportation can be a challenge. At first, I was overwhelmed by the number of buses and trains, and the crowds were stressful. _____

a. It took me 2 weeks to figure out the best routes to take and the quietest times to travel.

b. Some days, the trains were delayed, and its system was quite complicated, so I had to take a taxi to avoid being late.

c. After a few months, I got used to the system, and now I can navigate the city without any problems.

A. a - b - c B. b - a - c C. b - c - a D. c - a – b

Question 36 [686367]: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 35) most appropriately.

A. I still get confused by the bus routes, but I always find my way in the end.

B. The transportation system has its flaws, and it's inconvenient most of the time.

C. Even though I prefer driving, using public transportation has saved me a lot of money.

D. Now, I enjoy riding the bus and watching the city pass by from the window.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Question 37 [686368]: When I first started secondary school, I wasn't sure how to manage my time or keep up with all my assignments. At times, I felt stressed and thought about giving up. _____

a. Slowly, my grades began to improve, and I became one of the top students in my class.

b. Over time, I developed a routine that helped me stay on top of my work.

c. I started asking my teachers for help, and they gave me great advice.

A. a-b-c B. b - a - c C. c - b - a D. c - a – b

Question 38 [686369]: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 37) most appropriately.

A. I realized that hard work and asking for help were the keys to my success.

B. I ended up feeling more stressed, even though my grades improved.

C. My teachers started to give me more work because I was performing well.

D. Unfortunately, I became focused on studying and missed out on social activities.

Question 39 [686370]: When I first moved to a new school, I didn't know anyone, and making friends felt difficult. I often sat alone during lunch and felt out of place. _____

a. One day, a classmate invited me to join their group for lunch.

b. We began to spend time together outside of school, and soon we became close friends.

c. At first, I was nervous about meeting new people, but eventually, I realized how kind and welcoming they were.

A. a-b-c B. b-a-c C. c-a-b D. a-c-b

Question 40 [686371]: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 39) most appropriately.

A. Thanks to them, I felt like I belonged and enjoyed going to school again.

B. However, our friendship didn't last long, and I had to start all over.

C. Unfortunately, I started to drift away from my old friends.

D. Making friends turned out to be even the easiest part at school.

Question 41 [686372]: Moving out and living on my own for the first time was exciting, but it also came with many challenges. At first, I struggled to manage my finances and keep up with all the responsibilities. _____

a. After a few months, I learned to cook for myself and budget my money wisely.

b. I realized that living independently was harder than I had imagined, especially when unexpected bills came up.

c. Eventually, I got the hang of it and started to enjoy the freedom and responsibility of managing my own life.

A. a-b-c B. b-a-c C. c-a-b D. b-c-a

LIVEWORKSHEETS