

Subject pronouns

lyouhesheitwetheyThe subject is the person or thing doing something. The subject is usually before the verb.

Subject and Object Pronouns

Object pronouns

meyouhimheritusthemThe object is having something done to it.
The object is usually after the verb.

1.

Marta gave Maria a lollipop.
_____ gave _____ a lollipop.
Maria likes the lollipop.
_____ likes _____.

2.

Marta has got some balloons.
_____ has got some balloons.
The balloons are colourful.
_____ are colourful.
Marta likes the balloons.
_____ likes _____.

3.

Toby is playing with Diana.
_____ is playing with _____.
Diana lives near Toby.
_____ lives near _____.

4.

My students gave me an apple.
_____ gave me an apple.
I like my apple.
I like _____.
I like my students.
I like _____.

5.

Mum is shouting at Mark.
_____ is shouting at _____.
Mum and Mark are not happy.
_____ are not happy.

7.

Mum is buying food for Ana and me.
_____ is buying food for _____.
Daniel and I love our mum.
_____ love _____.

6.

Ana loves David.
_____ loves _____.
David doesn't know.
_____ doesn't know.

8.

Eva is watering the flowers.
_____ is watering _____.
The flowers are beautiful.
_____ are beautiful.