

PASSAGE 33

Tra ID Đề [5708] - Tra ID Video [5709]

Nonverbal communication, or "body language", is communication by facial expressions, head or eye movements, hand signals, and body postures. (1) _____. You use it in different situations. You shrug your shoulders to express you do not understand or narrow your eyebrows to show that you are curious about something. Misunderstandings, often amusing but sometimes serious, (2) _____. For example, take the differences in the meaning of a gesture that is very common in the United States: a circle made with the thumb and index finger. To an American, it means that everything is OK. (3) _____. To Japanese, it means that you are talking about money. In France, it (4) _____. Meanwhile, in Greece, it is an obscene gesture. Therefore, an American could unknowingly offend a Greek by using that particular hand signal.

- A. means that something is worthless
- B. This expression is also understood in many countries all around the world
- C. arise between people from different cultures if they misinterpret nonverbal signals
- D. It can be just as important to understand as words are.

Question 1: _____ Question 2: _____ Question 3: _____ Question 4: _____

PASSAGE 34

Tra ID Đề [5710] - Tra ID Video [5711]

Put down that phone! More and more young people today are beginning to tire of technology, and (1) _____. It seems that what was once old-fashioned is now hip. Millennials - those born between 1980 and 2000 - seem to have found a new interest in making things with their own hands. This DIY culture has resulted in hobbies like (2) _____. These hobbies are cheap, don't require a lot of space, and are easy to do! (3) _____. It is a great way to prepare homemade jams, jellies, and pickles for family and friends. Those who enjoy soap making make soaps that are healthy for the skin. (4) _____. As for beekeeping, it has many benefits besides providing honey. Beeswax can be used to make candles, soaps, and wood polish.

- A. have been turning to the hobbies of their parents and even grandparents
- B. Also, they don't contain harmful chemicals
- C. Canning is a way of making food last longer
- D. canning, soap making, and beekeeping becoming more popular among city residents

Question 1: _____ Question 2: _____ Question 3: _____ Question 4: _____