A Rainforest Adventure

The rainforest is a unique ecosystem. It is home to thousands of species of plants and animals, many of which cannot be found anywhere else in the world. Rainforests are located in tropical regions, where the climate is warm and wet all year round. These forests receive heavy rainfall, often more than 2,000 millimeters annually. They are crucial for maintaining the Earth's oxygen supply and play a key role in regulating the climate.

Many scientists are studying rainforests to understand the plants and animals that live there, as well as how deforestation affects the planet. Conservation efforts are important to protect these areas, as they are disappearing at a rapid rate.

0. Rainforests are found in tropical regions. True
1. Rainforests have a cold and dry climate. _____
2. Rainforests receive little rainfall each year. _____
3. The rainforest helps regulate the Earth's climate. _____
4. Scientists study rainforests to learn more about the animals and plants there. _____

Talking about Sport

Alan

I started playing tennis when I was five years old, but I was never very good at it. My parents really wanted me to do well and paid for me to have lessons outside school, but I always preferred football. I'm good enough to be in a top local team. With tennis, I could never hit the ball where I wanted it to go – it was always too high or too far. Finally, my parents let me stop going to tennis lessons and I've spent my time playing football since then.

Rod

My favourite sport has always been rugby. I've tried other sports and I was good at tennis. I won a tennis competition at school and my sports teacher told me that I was an excellent tennis player. But I didn't enjoy it as much as rugby because I like being part of a team. So I stopped playing tennis when I was about thirteen. My teacher and parents thought I should continue with it, but I preferred rugby.

Ben

I've always played a lot of sport. It's an important part of my life, and since I left school I do a wide variety of different types of sports – golf, rugby, tennis and football. I'm quite good at all of them, but I can't really say that I enjoy one of them more than the others. I'm probably best at rugby because I'm a big person, and it is hard to stop me when I'm running fast.

Part 3

Questions 14–18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Businessperson of the Year

Henrietta Dawson, a businessperson from Portsmouth, is the new Businessperson of the Year. Henrietta heard she had won the prize at a dinner in London last night.

'I can't believe I won the title!' Henrietta said when she found out. 'There are hundreds of good, hard-working businesspeople out there, so when people tell you that you're the best it's just fantastic.'

Henrietta runs three companies that make food and drink to sell to hotels and restaurants in and around her hometown. 'I couldn't have done it without my parents and husband. They've given me a lot of help,' Henrietta said.

Henrietta's mother was also a successful businessperson and taught her daughter that anything is possible if you work hard. Henrietta is also lucky because her husband, Pete, put his own career on hold to look after their two young children.

Henrietta is the first woman to win the title. Last year's winner, Tom Lawson, who runs a successful tourism company, was at the dinner too. 'The competition is an important way to get people interested in starting their own businesses,' he told the audience. 'Of course, not everyone wants to do it, but you don't need to come from a rich family to be a successful businessperson.'

Henrietta could one day be a rich woman. But she isn't one yet; the money she makes goes back into her businesses, not into her pocket.

14 Henrietta

- A has food and drink companies in Portsmouth.
- B sells hotels and restaurants in her hometown.
- C has companies which sell food and drink in London.

15 Henrietta
