

BITCOIN #1

Learn Vocabulary from the Lesson

- kicking myself: I'm really kicking myself. Kicking oneself means to be annoyed or disappointed in oneself. Notice the following:
 1. I am kicking myself for not going to the airport.
 2. I am kicking myself that I didn't sign up when I had the chance.
- a chicken and an egg thing: It's like a chicken and an egg thing. A chicken and an egg thing is a puzzle or riddle with no definite answer. Notice the following:
 1. Trying to find a solution is like a chicken and an egg thing.
 2. Its history is like a chicken and an egg thing, no one knows for sure.
- a foot in the door: Like get a foot in the door, I should say. Getting a foot in the door means getting an opportunity or taking the first step. Notice the following:
 1. She has to know a manager to get a foot in the door there.
 2. Good references will help him get a foot in the door at work.
- came out of nowhere: This market came out of nowhere. When something comes out of nowhere, it is highly unexpected and surprising. Notice the following:
 1. His proposal came out of nowhere.
 2. Their team came out of nowhere to win the award.
- underground movement: That's where it kind of gained the underground movement. Underground movements are secret operations that work outside the establishment. Notice the following:
 1. The underground movement was instrumental in Paris during the World War.
 2. She joined the underground movement because she was a rebel.
- break it down: If you break it down, it's just paper. To break something down means to analyze it and separate it into its parts. Notice the following:
 1. When you break it down, diamonds are just dust.
 2. Let's break it down and find where it went wrong.

Vocabulary Quiz

kicking myself • chicken and the egg • foot in the door • came out of • underground • break it down

1. Young people think it is cool to be in an _____ movement.
2. It's like the _____. What came first?
3. I am _____ for not investing in Amazon ten years ago.
4. I am trying to get a _____ in the music industry.
5. The success of Tik-Tok _____ nowhere.
6. If you cannot understand this, I can _____ for you.

Comprehension Quiz

1) When did Anthony first get into bitcoin as a hobbyist?

2007

2012

2014

2) What do bitcoin miners do?

solve riddles

solve math problems

solve cryptographic problems

3) What type of mining is more likely to find a block?

solo mining

pool mining circuit mining

4) Why is Satoshi Nakamoto called the alleged creator of bitcoin?

no one knows his real identity

only a team could have created it

someone from cyperphunks
created it

5) What is the approximate value of a bitcoin now?

$20

$8500

$100