Chapter 4: Imagination

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What helped the poet escape the “daily grind”?

a) Playing games outside

b) Talking to friends

c) Reading books

d) Watching television

2. Who is mentioned as the poet’s guide in Africa?

a) Huckleberry Finn

b) Jules Verne

c) Dr. Livingstone

d) An Eskimo chief

3. What does the phrase “my fantasy was all aglow” most likely mean?

a) The poet was angry

b) The poet was bored

c) The poet had trouble seeing clearly

d) The poet's imagination was full of joy and excitement

4. What genre of books did the poet most likely enjoy?

a) Cookbooks

b) Adventure and travel

c) Biographies

LIVEWORKSHEETS

d) Science textbooks

5. What did the poet pretend to be during childhood?

a) A pirate and a cowboy

b) A scientist and a teacher

c) A king and a knight

d) A doctor and a builder

6. Which author inspired the poet to imagine a trip to the moon?

a) Mark Twain

b) George Orwell

c) Jules Verne

d) William Shakespeare

7. What change occurred when the poet grew up?

a) He became more adventurous

b) He became serious and missed his imaginative world

c) He lost his imagination completely

d) He started writing books

8. What does “drove me around the bend” mean in the poem?

a) Took him on a journey

b) Made him feel bored

c) Made him lose interest

d) Made him nearly go crazy

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. Who is the fictional character the poet mentions hiding with in America?

a) Huckleberry Finn

b) Tom Sawyer

c) Harry Potter

d) Robin Hood

10. What is the poet's final message in the poem?

a) Reading is not enjoyable

b) Everyone should be serious in life

c) We should forget our childhood dreams

d) Even as adults, we should keep our imagination alive

LIVEWORKSHEETS