

Listening Part 1

You will hear people talking in eight different situations.

For questions 1-8, choose the best answer A, B or C.

- 1 You hear two people talking on the train.

Where has the man just been?

A at the theatre

B at work

C at home

- 2 You hear a woman talking on her mobile phone.

What is she hoping to do?

A arrange a meeting

B get some work

C sell a flat

- 3 You hear a woman telling her friend about her new brother-in-law.

What doesn't she like about him?

A the way he looks

B the way he speaks

C his enthusiasm for computers

- 4 You hear a teenager talking to her father.

What is she talking about?

A an eye test

B a language test

C a driving test

- 5 You hear two women talking about a friend in a cafe.

What do you learn about her?

A She's been on television.

B She's having a baby.

C She's just had a holiday.

- 6 You hear a woman on the bus talking on her mobile phone.

What is she talking about?

A investing in the Stock Exchange

B starting up her own new company

C having problems with her bank

- 7 You hear two people talking.

What are they talking about?

A an art exhibition

B a new library

C a redecorated room

- 8 You turn on the radio and hear a play.

How do you think the woman feels about her life?

A bored

B contented

C angry

Listening Part 2

Listen to this audio item about dog behaviour.

For questions 9-18, complete the sentences with a word or short phrase.

The chow chow leapt from a window on the (9)

It was frightened of a noisy (10)

A study of dog intelligence looked at (11) different breeds of dog.

The chow chow had to be told to do something at least (12) times before it understood.

The least intelligent breed of dog was the (13)

A border collie only needed to be told something (14) times before it understood the task.

The chances of a collie remembering an instruction was (15)

The collie was originally used as (16)

Chow chows come from (17)

Their name means literally (18)

Listening Part 3

You will hear five different people talking about their best friends at school.

For questions 19-23, choose from the list (A-F) what each person's job is.

Use the letters only once. There is one extra letter which you do not need to use.

- A She liked to be the centre of attention.
- B She had unpredictable changes of mood.
- C She often used to get into trouble with the teachers.
- D She used to do well without really trying.
- E She didn't take much interest in her schoolwork.
- F She was always ready to help other people.

19 Speaker 1

20 Speaker 2

21 Speaker 3

22 Speaker 4

23 Speaker 5

Listening Part 4

You will hear a man and a woman talking about cleaning things.

For questions 24-30, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

- 24 Where is the speaker currently working?
- A on TV
 - B in education
 - C in a cleaning business
- 25 How have listeners submitted questions to the programme?
- A through the Internet
 - B by post
 - C by text message
- 26 Why did Karen decide to deal with coffee stains first?
- A because a lot of listeners have asked her about this
 - B because of something that has just happened
 - C because it is a problem people often deal with wrongly
- 27 What is important about coffee stains?
- A It makes a difference whether the coffee is real or instant.
 - B It makes a difference whether the coffee has sugar in it or not.
 - C It makes a difference whether the coffee is black or white.
- 28 When do you put the stained item of clothing in the tumble dryer?
- A after washing with each different product
 - B after using a strong product like ammonia

C when you are sure the stain is gone

29 Lemon juice is very good as a cleaning product because it is

A cheaper than other cleaning products.

B more efficient than other cleaning products.

C something most people have at home anyway.

30 Lemon juice is best for cleaning

A stains on metal.

B marks made by wine.

C coffee stains.