

3. What does the word stance mean in paragraph 1 line 3?

4. How do people show that they feel weak?

5. Do people with a low-power position take advantage of whichever opportunities to speak with others?
Yes or No and Why.

6. How do people who believe in themselves behave?

7. What do high-power stances project?

8. How does a high-power stance affect the chemicals in our bodies?

9. What does hunch over mean in paragraph 2 line 1?

10. In your opinion, how important is body language in communication and interpersonal relationships?
(Support your idea)

Listening: a song

15. Listen to the song and complete the lyrics. (Track 2)

1. I can hear _____ when I'm singing.

4. She can see _____ in the movies.

2. You can hear _____ when you're talking.

5. We can help _____ if we work together.

3. He can see _____ in the mirror.

6. You can teach _____ if you pay attention.

7. They can hurt _____ if they aren't careful.

8. We can teach _____.

9. It can free _____ if it wants to.

10. I can feed _____ when I am hungry.

11. She can threat _____ if she has money.

12. He can reach _____ when he is older.

13. We can help _____ if we work together.

14. You can teach _____ if you pay attention.

15. They can hurt _____ if they aren't careful.

16. We can teach _____.

Speaking: Discuss the role of public transportation in cities.

16. Prepare a short speech addressing the following questions about public transportation. You will have 3 minutes to speak about these topics. Try to cover all questions, providing your personal opinions and experiences.

Figure 32

Public transportation

Note : Word-generated image with unrestricted access