Have you ever felt sad and 1 lonely, like when you haven't seen friends for so long? I have. The 2 of growing up and every day being just about school work is common for people our age. School work is important, but there's more to life, right? So ... I decided to set up a band! I texted some friends to see if they'd be interested. I was 3 at first as I didn't get any replies for a while. Then I told myself to stay 4 . Just relax and wait. I was so 5 when my friends started to reply. I couldn't stop smiling! We all felt a little 6 at first. None of us had played in front of each other before. But the more we played, the better we got. They told me they had all felt lonely at times, just like me. They were really 7 when I told them my worries. We all felt really 8 that we'd set up a great band with a fantastic future for having fun!
