Jobs and employment

1 Complete the names of jobs. The first letter is given. (Uzupełnij luki nazwami zawodów, na które wskazują poszczególne zdania).

1 I love books so doing this job is perfect. l_____

2 We need a c_____ because we haven't got time to tidy the house every week.

3 She speaks fluent Spanish and English so she is an i_____ for business people.

4 My dad's a famous w_____. You can buy his books online.

5 I see people to help them understand their problems. p_____

6 I prepare two hundred meals every lunchtime. c_____

2 Choose the correct answers. (Wybierz poprawną odpowiedź).

1 The film director / manager showed the actors what he wanted them to do.

2 He loves his job as a music critic / programmer because he can write about lots of new music.

3 Did you book your holiday with the travel assistant / agent?

4 I would hate to be a dentist's plumber / assistant, looking at teeth all day.

5 Do you work flexible / shifts hours or do you have work the same time every day?

6 I get five weeks' paid experience / holiday every year.

7 David is an app designer / engineer and has created some great ones.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3 Choose the correct answers. (Wybierz poprawne odpowiedzi).

Pablo needs to look / gain for a part-time job. He's seen an advert for jobs at the sports centre so he's going to get / apply for a part-time job there. He hopes to have / give an interview next week. He needs to earn / be some wages because his father will be / go retired soon and will only give / get a pension. It will also be good to gain / give some work experience before then. His mother is still working and is going to get / have a promotion next month, which is good. Pablo's brother, Javier, decided to give / quit up his job last month because he didn't like it. This means that he won't earn / get unemployment benefit, but he isn't worried because he's going to start his own business.

LIVEWORKSHEETS