3. Emily and her family had a seven-day holiday in Samarkand, Uzbekistan. Read their holiday experiences and complete the table with the correct names.

OUR ADVENTURE IN SAMARKAND, UZBEKISTAN

I visited a family in Samarkand and tried traditional dishes like pilaf and shashlik. The pilaf ceremony was interesting to me. Pilaf is cooked in a large pot over an open flame and served in a big dish for everyone to share. The head of the household or guest of honour is served first to show respect.

Brian

I visited many historical landmarks in Samarkand, such as Registan Square and Shah-i-Zinda. They were amazing and full of history.

David

I attended a wedding in Samarkand. The women wore bright and smart dresses with gold or silver details. The men wore suits or traditional Uzbek coats called chapan. The atmosphere was joyful.

Emily

I went to the Samarkand Botanic Garden. Spending time there and exploring different plant species was a great experience. The garden had many interesting plants like roses, pomegranates, and lavender. It was a peaceful and relaxing place.

Food Poisoning

On March 15, 2025, a sudden outbreak of food poisoning affected over 200 people in the City of Riverside. The hospitals in the city were overwhelmed with patients experiencing symptoms such as vomiting and stomach cramps. Emergency teams were sent to help manage the situation, and health inspectors immediately began checking food safety practices in the area. The restaurant was temporarily closed for investigations, and the public was warned to avoid eating there until further notice. Health officials are now working to identify the exact source of the contamination and prevent further cases.
