Emma's Job Opportunity. La Oportunidad Laboral de Emma.

Emma was very excited. She had an interview for her dream job. She prepared a lot, but she started to freak out on the day of the interview. She was so nervous that she almost chickened out.

At the company, she told herself to _____ and breathe. While waiting, she saw other candidates and thought, "I should _____ for tricky questions."

The interview started, but she made mistakes. She tried to _____, but she felt terrible. The interviewer asked her a difficult question, and she completely forgot what to say. She almost passed out from stress!

A few days later, she got an email: she didn't get the job. Emma wanted to _____. She thought, "I will never get a good job." She didn't want to _____ with her friends because she felt too sad.

Her best friend, Jake, told her, "Don't let this get you down. You can always _____ me. We all make mistakes." Emma knew she could _____ Jake for support.

Emma decided to move on and look for other jobs. She also wanted to _____ a new challenge—improving her interview skills. She asked Jake for help.

One day, she had two job offers and needed to _____ one. She was excited but also scared. Jake said, “Just think carefully and don’t _____ small details.”

Before her next interview, Jake said, “This time, don’t be nervous. Just _____ and do your best. If this job isn’t right for you, you can always pass it on to a friend who needs it.”

That night, Jake hesitated, as they talked, for a moment and then said, “You know... I’ve been meaning to _____ you out for a long time. Maybe after your interview, we could go to dinner?”

Emma was surprised, but she smiled and said, “I’d love that.”

The next day, she didn’t freak out. She was ready—not just for the interview, but for something new in her life.

In the end, Emma got the job! And later, she and Jake went on their first date. She learned that every experience, good or bad, helps us grow.
