

Present Simple: My Daily Routine By Adith Gómez

The present simple tense is used to talk about habits, routines, and things that happen regularly. We use the base form of the verb for most subjects (I, you, we, they) and add -s or -es for he, she, and it. For example: "I wake up at 7 a.m." or "She walks to school."

Fill in the Blank: Fill in the blank with the correct words.

1. I _ breakfast every morning at 7:30.
2. My brother _ the bus to school.
3. We _ our homework after school.
4. She _ her teeth before bedtime.
5. They _ soccer in the park on Saturdays.

Word bank:

brushes, eat, play, takes, do

Multiple Choice Questions: Choose the correct answer from the choices for each question.

1. Which sentence uses the present simple tense?
 - a) I will study after dinner.
 - b) I studies after dinner.
 - c) I study after dinner.
 - d) I am studying after dinner.
2. Which is correct for "he" in present simple?
 - a) He go to school.
 - b) He goes to school.
 - c) He going to school.
 - d) He gone to school.
3. Which sentence is correct?
 - a) She eat breakfast.
 - b) She eats breakfast.
 - c) She eating breakfast.
 - d) She eaten breakfast.
4. What do we use the present simple tense for?
 - a) To talk about things happening now
 - b) To talk about past events
 - c) To talk about regular routines
 - d) To talk about future plans
5. Which is the correct question in present simple?
 - a) Do you plays basketball?
 - b) Does you play basketball?
 - c) Do you play basketball?
 - d) Did you play basketball?

Open-Ended Questions: Answer the following questions in complete sentences.

1. What is one thing you do every morning?

1. Describe your evening routine using the present simple tense.

1. Write a sentence about something your friend does every weekend.