 Mini-Story Gap Fill: "Shira and the Rap Battle Surprise"

Word Bank (use each word once):

conditions, conduct, consequence, considerable, contemporary, contest

When Shira signed up for the school's rap _____, she didn't expect to go up against Yonatan, the reigning freestyle king.

The event took place under strange _____: the microphone squeaked, the DJ was her math teacher, and half the audience was just waiting for the pizza delivery.

Still, Shira kept her cool and decided to _____ herself with confidence and rhythm.

She opened with a verse about Talmud study and sneakers, mixing tradition with _____ slang — and the crowd loved it.

Yonatan panicked and accidentally rhymed "Hanukkah" with "lasagna," which had an unfortunate _____: total silence from the judges.

In the end, Shira won by a _____ margin, and the prize was a golden dreidel... and a coupon for falafel.
