Hello, my name is Peter. I am eleven years old. I live in Liverpool. I am British. When I grow up I want to be a vet. I love animals and I would like to help them.

My dad is a teacher. He helps me with my homework after school. He likes being a teacher.

My mum is a cashier. She works in a supermarket. She is not happy with her job. She studied to be a scientist but she couldn't find a job.

My brother is older than me. He is studying at university. He wants to be an artist. He is very good at painting.

I also have a younger brother. He is eight. He is a student right now. When he grows up he wants to be a hairdresser.

My best friend is Mina. She is ten years old. She lives next to my house. She is also British. When she grows up she wants to be a musician. She plays the violin but she is not good at it. I think she would be a great explorer one day. She is good at finding things.
