Unusual Types of Homes (Vocabulary)

ACTIVITY 1. Look and guess. Fill in the gaps with letters «a», «e», «i», «o», or «u» to get the words for different types of homes.

1. fl _ t

2. tr _ _ h _ _ s _

3. c_ stl _

4. h_ _ s _ b _ _ t

ACTIVITY 2 (a). Listen, read and match. Write your answers in the gaps below.

ACTIVITY 2 (b). Listen to your teacher and answer the questions in full sentences.

Example:

Where does Nazar live?

He lives in a flat.

Now You!

Where does [NAME] live?

He / She lives in a . . .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

ACTIVITY 3. Complete each gap with ONE word in the correct grammar form using the information from the texts in ACTIVITY 2 (a).

Jack's home a 1. ..... in the city centre.

the 2. ..... and the 3. ..... are in one big room.

Vicky's home a 4. ..... on the water.

no 5. ..... or 6. ..... near her home.

Daisy's home a 7. ..... in the country.

lots of 8. ..... and 9. ..... live near her home.

Peter's home an old 10. ..... .

has got 11. ..... bedrooms.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Positive and Negative Characteristics (Speaking Preparation)

ACTIVITY 4. Read and think. Drag the statements to their correct group (+) or (-).

Flat
flats are near shops, schools and friends. flats usually need lifts. the city centre has cars and lorries.
(+)	**(-)

Houseboat
no streets or roads near the house. you can move your house. a houseboat is very small. you can see ducks from your house's window.
(+)	**(-)

Tree house
you need to climb up to your house. birds and animals are near your house. a tree house is small.
(+)	**(-)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Castle
a castle is very big. it has a lot of rooms.	it's difficult to clean the castle. big gardens need a lot of work.
(+)	(-)

Speaking

ACTIVITY 5. Work in pairs. Take turns to ask and answer in which of the homes would / wouldn't you like to live. Use the ideas from ACTIVITY 4 to explain your choice.

Example:

Would you like to live in a castle?

No, I wouldn't.

Why?

Because it's very big.

LIVEWORKSHEETS