

Exercise 1 Causative Form (have/ get something done)

Choose the correct sentence that uses the causative construction appropriately.

1.

A. I got repaired my laptop yesterday.

B. I had my laptop repaired yesterday.

C. I have repaired my laptop yesterday by a technician.

2.

A. She got her car serviced before the trip.

B. She serviced her car got before the trip.

C. She had serviced her car by a mechanic

3.

A. We get installed new software every month.

B. We have new software installed every month.

C. We got installed new software.

4.

A. He has the house cleaned by himself.

B. He has cleaned the house by a cleaner.

C. He had the house cleaned professionally.

5.

A. I had to get the documents signed urgently.

B. I had to got the documents signed urgently.

C. I had to sign the documents by someone.

Exercise 2: Complete the text with suitable words

Fill in the gaps using the correct transport-related words from the list. One word is extra.

WORD LIST: congestion, fare, commute, delays, infrastructure, toll, runway

Text:

Urban transport systems are under increasing pressure due to rising populations and daily_____. In many cities, poor transport_____ leads to frequent_____, especially during peak hours. While governments invest in better roads and rail systems, issues like high_____ costs and _____ roads still impact the efficiency of travel. Even air transport faces challenges, such as overcrowded terminals and limited availability of_____ space.