

Statistics & Translation

1. If the triangle A is translated, what are the coordinates of the new triangle?

- a. 3 squares right and 4 units up _____
- b. 2 squares up and 3 units right _____
- c. 5 squares right and 4 squares up _____

1. The pictogram shows the average rainfall occurring in each month of the year. Use it to answer the questions.

How much more likely is that it will rain in:

a. June than March?

b. May than January?

c. July than December?

d. May than November?