Present Progressive and Simple Present

Grammar in Context

BEFORE YOU READ

👂 Look at the cartoons. What are the people doing? How do they feel? Read this article about cross-cultural communication.

WHAT'S YOUR CROSS-CULTURAL IQ?

Are you living in your native country or in another country? Do you ever travel abroad? Do you understand the misunderstandings below?

SITUATION 1

Tomás is visiting Claude. Claude looks very surprised. In Tomás's culture, people often visit without calling first. But in Claude's culture, people don't do that. They always check with their friends before they come over.

SITUATION 2

Nicole and Sheila are saying hello and kissing. They are both feeling very uncomfortable. In Nicole's culture, people usually kiss twice, once on each cheek. In Sheila's culture, people don't kiss more than once.

AFTER YOU READ

Complete each sentence with the correct name.

- _____ is visiting without calling first.
- _____ is surprised to have a visitor.
- _____ is kissing the other woman twice.
- _____ doesn't expect a second kiss.

Now circle the correct answer for your own culture.

In my culture . . .

- People usually call / don't call before visiting.
- When people say hello, they don't kiss / kiss.

GRAMMAR NOTES

1. Use the present progressive to describe something that is happening right now (for example, now, at the moment).

The present progressive is often used to show that the action is temporary.

- Tomás is visiting Claude.
- He's speaking English right now.

- I'm staying with friends at the moment, but I plan to leave soon.

2. Use the simple present to describe what regularly happens (for example, every day, usually, always).

Use the simple present to talk about scientific facts.

- Tomás talks to Claude every day.
- He usually wears jeans.
- He always speaks Spanish at home.

- Stress causes high blood pressure.
- Water boils at 212°F (100°C).

3. Use the present progressive to describe something that is happening in the extended present time (for example, nowadays, these days, this month, this year), even if it's not happening at the moment of speaking.

- We're studying U.S. customs this month.
- Laura's studying in France this year.
- Are you studying hard these days?

4. Use the simple present with adverbs of frequency to express how often something happens.

▶ BE CAREFUL! Adverbs of frequency usually go before the main verb, but they go after the verb be.

- In Spain women always kiss on both cheeks.
- In France women often kiss on both cheeks.
- We rarely stand very close to each other.
- In China children never call adults by their first names.
- They never come late.
- They are never late.

5. Use the simple present with most non-action verbs. Do not use the present progressive—even when the verb describes a situation that exists at the moment of speaking.

Non-action verbs usually describe states or situations but not actions. They are used to:

a. express emotions (hate, like, love, want, feel, fear, trust)

USAGE NOTE: Unlike other verbs that express emotion, feel is often used in the progressive form.

b. describe mental states (know, remember, believe, think [= believe], understand)

c. show possession (have, own, possess, belong)

d. describe senses and perceptions (hear, see, smell, taste, feel, notice, seem, look [= seem], be, appear, sound)

- Jane wants to go home now.
NOT Jane ~~is wanting~~ to go home now.

- We like Claude a lot.
- Ricki feels homesick. OR
- Ricki is feeling homesick.

- I know a lot of U.S. customs now.
- Ari remembers your number.

- Cesar has two brothers.
- Some students own cars.

- I hear the telephone.
- Dina seems tired.

6. BE CAREFUL! Some verbs that describe senses and perceptions such as taste, smell, feel, and look can have both a non-action and an action meaning.

NON-ACTION

- The soup tastes good. Try some.

ACTION

- She's tasting the soup to see if it needs more salt.

DISCOVER THE GRAMMAR

Read these journal entries by Brian, a Canadian summer exchange student studying in Argentina. Circle all the verbs that describe what is happening now. Underline the verbs that describe what regularly happens.

JUNE 28: I'm sitting in a seat 30,000 feet above the Earth en route to Argentina! I usually have dinner at this time, but right now I have an awful headache from all the excitement. My seatmate is eating my food. I guess it's good. She looks happy.

JUNE 30: It's 7:30 P.M. My host parents are still working. Carlos, my father, works at home. My little brother, Ricardo, is cute. He looks (and acts) a lot like Bobby. Right now, he's looking over my shoulder and trying to read my journal.

JULY 4: The weather is cold here. I usually spend the first weekend of July at the beach. Today I'm walking around in a heavy sweater.

AUGUST 6: I usually feel great in the evening because we take long naps in the afternoon, but tonight I feel really tired.

AUGUST 25: I'm feeling very comfortable here now—but it's almost time to go home! My host parents usually cook a light dinner, but tonight they're cooking a special dinner for me. I miss them already!

SCHEDULE CHANGES

Grammar Notes 1-2

Look at Brian's schedule in Argentina. He usually has a regular schedule but today is different. Complete the sentences below. Use the present progressive or the simple present. Choose between affirmative and negative forms.

7:00-8:00	run in the park	get ready for a field trip
8:30-12:30	attend class	go on a field trip to the museum
1:00-2:00	eat lunch
2:00-3:00	take a nap	work on the family web page
3:00-5:00	work in the cafeteria
5:00-6:30	do homework	call home at 5:00 sharp today!
6:30-8:30	play tennis	watch a video with Eva
8:30	have dinner
9:30-10:00	write letters	take a walk with the family
10:00-10:30	take a shower	do homework

am coming from Costa Rica, and people
8. (come / 'm coming) usually stand that close to each other.
9. (usually stand / are usually standing)

4 MORE CULTURAL DIFFERENCES

Grammar Notes 1-6

Other students are talking outside of a classroom. Complete their conversations. Use the simple present or the present progressive form of the verbs in parentheses.

A. RASHA: There's Hans. Why is he walking
1. (walk)
 so fast? Class starts at 9:00.
2. (start)
 He still has 10 minutes!
3. (have)
 CLAUDE: He always walks fast. I think Swiss
4. (walk)
 people often appear to be in a hurry.
5. (appear)

B. YOKO: Isn't that Sergio and Luis? Why do they shake
1. (shake)
know each other!
2. (know)
 LI-JING: In Brazil, men shake hands every time
3. (shake)
 they meet.
4. (meet)
 YOKO: Do women shake hands too?
5. (shake)

5 CULTURE SHOCK!

Grammar Notes 1-6

Complete the following paragraph. Use the correct form of the verbs in the box.

cause feel go live ~~make~~ travel

New food, new customs, new routines—they all make international travel 1.
 interesting. But they also cause culture shock for many travelers. Do you 2.
 now live or go in a culture different from your own? If so, why
3. 4.
do you feel so good (or so bad)? Some experts say that we often 5.
go through four stages of culture shock:
6.

Honeymoon Stage: In the first weeks everything seems great.
Rejection Stage: You have negative feelings about the new culture.
Adjustment Stage: Things are getting better these days.
Adaptation Stage: You are finally comfortable in the new culture.

Take the quiz in Exercise 6 and see what stage you are in.

6 QUIZ

Grammar Notes 1-6

Complete the following statements using the correct form of the verbs in the box. Then check the statements that are true for you now.

annoy	feel	improve	live	love
make	think	treat	understand	want

1. I love it here!
2. People always _____ me very kindly.
3. The customs here often _____ me.
4. I _____ here now, but I _____ I'll stay.
(negative)
5. I _____ to go home!
6. My language skills _____ a lot each month.
7. I _____ a lot of new friends these days.
8. I still _____ everything, but I _____ at home here.
(negative)

To check your Quiz results, go to page 92.

7 EDITING

Read this student's journal. There are eleven mistakes in the use of the present progressive or simple present. The first mistake is already corrected. Find and correct ten more.

It's 12:30 and ^{I'm sitting} ~~I sit~~ in the library right now. My classmates are eating lunch together, but I'm not hungry yet. At home, we eat never this early. Today our journal topic is culture shock. It's a good topic for me right now because I'm being pretty homesick. I miss my old routine. At home we always are eating a big meal at 2:00 in the afternoon. Then we rest. But here in Toronto I'm having a 3:00 conversation class. Every day I almost fall asleep in class, and my teacher ask me, "Are you bored?" Of course I'm not bored. I just need my afternoon nap! This class always is fun. This semester we work on a project with video cameras. My team is filming groups of people from different cultures. We are analyze "social distance." That means how close to each other these people stand. According to my new watch, it's 12:55, so I leave now for my 1:00 class. Teachers here really aren't liking tardiness!

Communication Practice

8 LISTENING

🔊 Listen to an interview with a new foreign student. Then listen again and check the things the student usually does and the things she is doing now or these days.

	Usually	Now or These Days
1. speak English	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
2. speak Spanish	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. live in a small town	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. live in a big city	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. walk slowly	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. wear a watch	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
7. study computer science	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

9 GETTING TO KNOW YOU

Walk around your classroom. Ask your classmates questions. Find someone who . . .

	Name(s)
• likes visiting foreign countries	_____
• isn't wearing a watch	_____
• speaks more than two languages	_____
• is studying something besides English	_____
• doesn't watch sports on TV	_____
• is planning to travel this year	_____
• _____ (add your own)	_____

Example: A: Do you like visiting foreign countries?
B: Yes, I do. What about you?

Report back to the class.

Example: Tania and José like visiting foreign countries.

10 WHAT'S HAPPENING?

Work in pairs. Look at the photographs. Describe them. What's happening? Discuss possible explanations for each situation. Compare your answers with those of your classmates.

Example: A: He's pointing. He looks angry.
B: Maybe he's just explaining something.

11 QUESTIONABLE QUESTIONS?

Work in small groups. Look at the questions. In your culture, which questions are appropriate to ask someone you just met? Which are not appropriate? Compare your choices with those of your classmates.

- How old are you?
- How much rent do you pay?
- Are you married?
- What do you do?
- What are you studying?
- Where do you live?

12 WRITING

Write a paragraph about a new experience you are having. Maybe you are living in a new country, taking a new class, or working at a new job. Describe the situation. How is it different from what you usually do? How do you feel in the situation?

Example: I usually live at home with my parents, but this month I'm living with my aunt and uncle. Everything seems different. My aunt . . .

13 ON THE INTERNET

C Weather often affects what people in different cultures do. Do a search on weather for a place you know well. Find out what the weather is now. Then compare it to what the weather usually is this time of year. Tell your classmates about the weather and what people usually do in this weather.

Example: In Haiti it usually rains this time of year, but today it's not raining. It rains so often in Haiti that people usually ignore it. Children often play outside in the rain.
