

Questions about paragraph structure, identifying main sentences, supporting details, and conclusions.

QUESTION 1.- What is the topic sentence in this paragraph?

"Online education has changed the way we learn. It allows students to study at their own pace and from anywhere. It also offers access to many digital resources. This is why online education is becoming increasingly popular."

Options:

- a) It allows students to study at their own pace and from anywhere.
- b) Online education has changed the way we learn.
- c) It also offers access to many digital resources.
- d) This is why online education is becoming increasingly popular.

QUESTION 2.- What is a supporting detail in this paragraph?

"Climate change affects global agriculture. Variations in climate cause droughts and heavy rains that damage crops. This reduces food production and affects the rural economy. Therefore, it is necessary to adopt sustainable agricultural practices."

Options:

- a) Climate change affects global agriculture.
- b) Therefore, it is necessary to adopt sustainable agricultural practices.
- c) Variations in climate cause droughts and heavy rain that damage crops.
- d) Global agriculture is very important for the economy

QUESTION 3.- What is the conclusion in this paragraph?

"Regular exercise improves physical and mental health. Studies show that it reduces the risk of cardiovascular disease. It also helps control stress and anxiety. In short, exercise is essential for a healthy life."

Options:

- a) Regular exercise improves physical and mental health.
- b) Studies show that it reduces the risk of cardiovascular disease.
- c) It also helps control stress and anxiety.
- d) In short, exercise is essential for a healthy life.