

Unit 5 English Test - 'You've Got Talent!' (Liveworksheets Version)

Welcome to the Unit 5 English Test - 'You've Got Talent!'

Read carefully, listen attentively, and do your best!

This test includes: Reading, Writing, Listening, Grammar, and Vocabulary.

Good luck!

1. Reading

Read the text and choose the correct answers.

Marie Curie was a scientist. She discovered radium and polonium. She won two Nobel Prizes for her work in physics and chemistry.

1) What was Marie Curie's profession? (Choose one)

☐ Doctor ☐ Scientist ☐ Teacher

2) How many Nobel Prizes did she win?

☐ One ☐ Two ☐ Three

2. Writing

Write 3-5 sentences about a talent you have. Use the past simple tense.

Write 3-5 sentences about a talent you have. Use the past simple tense.

Write 3-5 sentences about a talent you have. Use the past simple tense.

3. Listening

Listen to the audio your teacher plays and answer the questions:

Amelia Earhart was a famous pilot. She was the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean. She disappeared during a flight in 1937.

3) What was Amelia Earhart's profession?

☐ Scientist ☐ Pilot ☐ Doctor

4) What did she achieve?

☐ Discovered a new element ☐ Won a Nobel Prize ☐ Flew solo across the Atlantic Ocean

4. Grammar and Vocabulary

5) He ____ fires.

☐ fight ☐ fights ☐ fought

6) A ____ helps people when they are sick.

☐ Firefighter ☐ Teacher ☐ Doctor

5. Critical Thinking

Compare two professions using comparative sentences.

Example: 'A doctor helps sick people. A teacher helps students learn. Both help others.'

Compare two professions using comparative sentences.

Example: 'A doctor helps sick people. A teacher helps students learn. Both help others.'

Compare two professions using comparative sentences.

Example: 'A doctor helps sick people. A teacher helps students learn. Both help others.'

Final Message

Well done!

Thank you for completing the test.

I'm proud of your effort - keep practicing and showing your talent!

When finished, click on 'Finish' and send your answers to: alpensan@canariaseducacion.es