SESSION N°01
" READING AMAZING NAMES"

1 Read

A. Listen and read. Then answer the question below. Choose a, b or c.

Amazing names

Where do you think this text is from?

- a. a history book
- b. a magazine
- c. a book about famous people

Billy 'Buzz' Kingsley

was born on 21 July 1969, the day Neil Armstrong and 'Buzz' Aldrin walked on the moon. His father liked Aldrin's name so he started calling Billy, 'Buzz'. Funny name, eh? At school, Billy 'Buzz' was very good at Maths and Science. He became interested in space travel and read books about it in his free time. He even wanted to become an astronaut. Today, he works at a planetarium.

'Buzz' Aldrin: walked on the moon in 1969

Pablo Lopez

was born in the same city Picasso was born in, Malaga in Spain. But the amazing thing is that Pablo was born on 8 April 1973, the day Picasso died! But that's not all. Pablo's mother was crazy about Picasso and she named her son after him. Well, not exactly because Picasso's full name was Pablo Diego José Francisco de Paula Juan Nepomuceno María de los Remedios Cipriano de la Santísima Trinidad Ruiz Picasso! When Pablo was a young boy, he was interested in Art and had lessons. He spent his free time drawing. He could draw quite well but not like Picasso. Today, he's an Art teacher.

Picasso:
