

3. Rephrase the second sentence using the word in brackets so that it keeps the same meaning. Use a full expression.

Example: I want to double-check that we're all presenting on Thursday. (Let)
Let me make sure I got this right — we're all presenting on Thursday?

1. I just want to be sure the invoice is going out this week. (make)

2. Sorry, I'm not sure what "low-hanging fruit" refers to. (mean)

3. I don't understand what you said about version control. (follow)

4. Do you mean we just skip the testing phase? (saying)

5. What exactly is meant by "value proposition"? (by)

6. She said we'd get feedback first, then update the file. (If)

7. I'm not familiar with this new pricing logic. (break)

8. You said the pricing is dynamic — do you mean it changes over time? (As)
