

Fill in the correct prepositions where necessary.

1. On a train, a guard is a person whose job is to travel the train order to help passengers, check tickets, and make sure that the train travels safely and time.
2. They were unfair and their accusations hit the belt.
3. If a situation goes bad worse, it becomes even more unpleasant or unsatisfactory.
4. He is not a good singer. He sings key.
5. I'm afraid he's not the job. He will not cope with it.
6. He asked the shop assistant if he could pay cheque.
7. I prefer to pay cash.
8. The traffic was a standstill. Cars didn't move for hours.
9. Her flat is walking distance from this place.
10. We need a room 15 feet 20 feet.
11. This whole day was happy ... beginning end.
12. I'm afraid this old piano is now repair so we'd better get rid it.
13. C.O.D stands cash delivery. It means that you pay for goods when they are delivered.
14. I had to work time to get the report finished.
15. It stands reason that if you are considerate and friendly to people you will get a lot more back.
16. Someone who is hard hearing is not able to hear properly.
17. If goods are stock, a shop has them available to sell. If they are stock, it does not.
18. They had an advantage their competitors.
19. If someone such as a policeman or a nurse is duty, they are not working.
20. In a few minutes the train was way.

CHECK YOUR ANSWERS! :)