

Memory Aid

The King pretended to be Harvey to trick people. He and the Duke cried to fool them. The Wilks sisters were kind to them. The King hid the money in the basement, and Mary Jane said he could keep it and use it as he wanted.

True or false

1 The King pretended to be Harvey to gain trust from the townspeople.

- True
 False

2 The Wilks' girls were named Mary Jane, Susan, and Joanna.

- True
 False

3 The King and Duke cried to make everyone believe their story.

- True
 False

4 The money was hidden in the basement.

- True
 False

5 Mary Jane wanted the King to keep the money and spend it as he liked.

- True
 False

Multiple choice

1 Why did the King make everyone think he was Harvey?

- To help the Wilks' girls.
- To find the money.
- To hide from the police.
- To gain trust from the townspeople.

2 Describe the three Wilks' girls.

- They were named Jane, Susan, and Mary.
- They were named Mary Jane, Susan, and Joanna.
- They were named Mary, Sarah, and Joanna.
- They were named Susan, Joanna, and Sarah.

3 How did everyone react when the King and Duke arrived?

- They laughed and welcomed them.
- They ignored them.
- They cried and believed their story.
- They were angry and suspicious.

4 Where was the money hidden?

- Under the bed.
- In the attic.
- In the garden.
- In the basement.

5 What did they do with the money after they found it?

- They gave it to the Wilks' girls.
- They spent it immediately.
- They hid it again.
- They kept it for themselves.

Complete questions

1 Why did the King make everyone think he was Harvey?

2 Describe the three Wilks' girls.

3 How did everyone react when the King and Duke arrived?

4 Where was the money hidden?

5 What did they do with the money after they found it?
