CHATTING ABOUT A SERIES

Fill in each blank with NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS

Man: So, did you see the final _____ last night?

Woman: Of course! As if I would miss that!

Man: And?

Woman: It was _____the best episode, definitely.

Man: Yeah, totally. The dragon at the end and all the _____in that final scene were _____.

Woman: I loved that part! But I still don't think this series was as good as the others.

Man: Really? But you said you wouldn't want to miss it?

Woman: I know, but still ... it's a lot more _____ than it used to be.

Man: But that's because the story has been told so well that all the _____ are reaching their _____ now.

Woman: I don't know ... before, anyone could die at any time so it was _____! But, this series, no key characters died and we all knew they wouldn't. When Jaime fell in the water after the dragon _____ him, we knew he would make it somehow. And ... oh, surprise, Bronn _____ in and saves him.

Man: They did kill some characters in this series, though. What was that one's name ...?

Woman: Exactly, see! You can't even _____ who died!

Man: Hmm. The only thing I didn't like about this series was that it was _____ than the others. Seven episodes instead of ten. Maybe they spent all their money on that dragon!

Woman: Right! I don't understand why they did it, as all the fans would _____ watch ten episodes.

Man: I reckon that now they're not using the story in the books any more, they don't have as _____.

Woman: That would explain why they're not being as _____ with the story too. It's more like a Hollywood film than a TV show now.

Man: So, is Tyrion still your _____ character?

Woman: You know ... _____, I think my favourite might be Cersei.

Man: What?!

Woman: She's so interesting! All the _____ things she's done and the way she's just aiming for revenge, even though it won't make her happy. She still surprises us because we're expecting her to have a _____where she sees her mistakes and becomes a good person. But she never does, no matter what it costs her. She's unpredictable because we just can't _____ anyone would be like her.

Man: I guess. You don't have to like a character for them to be your favourite!
