ORAL COMPREHENSION

LISTENING

Level: Upper Intermediate
Gender: Male & Female
Accent: British English
Length: 4:30

THE GLOBAL POSITIONING SYSTEM

LISTEN TO THE RECORDING AND ANSWER THE QUESTIONS.

CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWERS

1.- The global positioning system...
- a) is fairly new technology.
- b) gets information from maps.
- c) won't be developed for many years.

2.- What do satellites send to GPS receivers?
- a) calculations.
- b) information and location.
- c) radio signals.

3.- How does a GPS unit transmit location ...
- a) via satellite.
- b) through electronic map displays.
- c) by using radio signals.

4.- Which statement about GPS is true?
- a) GPS is used by the military.
- b) Families can use GPS.
- c) Both a and b.

5.- Children who carry a GPS device...
- a) are unable to leave specific areas.
- b) will be able to be detected if they leave a permitted location.
- c) must notify their parents when they leave a particular area.

6.- What does "augmented reality" mean?
- a) Adding images made by a computer to the real world.
- b) Receiving images from the real world.
- c) The ability to see into the future.

7.- What component is not necessary for an augmented reality system?
- a) Glasses
- b) A belt
- c) A computer

8.- Superimposed images won't...
- a) give information about places.
- b) help people see better.
- c) provide directions to places.

9.- Augmented reality will eventually include images of...
- a) historical events.
- b) video games.
- c) museums.

10.- The augmented reality systems...
- a) can be bought, but are very expensive.
- b) are already convenient and affordable.
- c) will be sold to consumers during the next ten years.

Prof. Clemente Salguero Martín

LIVEWORKSHEETS