

A. Read the text:

Every morning, Sarah eats a healthy breakfast. She usually has a bowl of cereal with milk, a banana, and a glass of orange juice. Sometimes, she eats eggs and toast instead. Sarah never drinks soda in the morning, but she always drinks water. For lunch, she usually eats rice with vegetables or a sandwich. She tries to avoid too much sugar and prefers natural food.

B. Answer the following questions:

1. Identify three countable nouns from the text.
2. Identify three uncountable nouns from the text.
3. Which of the nouns from the text is in plural form? Write its singular form.
4. Which of the nouns from the text is in singular form? Write its plural form.
5. Would you use 'much' or 'many' with the noun 'vegetables'? Why?
6. Would you use 'much' or 'many' with the noun 'milk'? Why?
7. In the phrase 'a banana', why do we use 'a' before the noun? Is it countable or uncountable?
8. In the phrase 'a glass of orange juice', which noun is countable and which is uncountable?
9. From the text, find one example of a noun that cannot be counted.
10. Explain why 'sugar' is considered uncountable in the text.