Task 2: Read and Decide – True or False? If False, correct the sentence.

A Night to Remember

Last weekend, I went to a music concert with my best friend Lily. We had front-row seats, so we could see everything clearly. The lights were huge and colorful, and the band was really well-known.

The singer was very entertaining. He danced, sang, and talked to the fans. I really appreciated how hard the band worked to perform their best songs.

They also announced that they would release a new recording next week. Everyone in the fan club was so excited!

If they have another concert next month, I will go again for sure. If I were a singer, I would sing songs that make people happy and smile.

It was the best night ever!
