

CAMBRIDGE 19Test 1Section 2*

It's great to see so many members of the Twinning Association here tonight. Since the twinning link between our two towns, Stanthorpe here in England and Malatte in France, was established, (1) has gone from strength to strength.

Last month, (2) from Stanthorpe spent a weekend in Malatte. Our hosts had arranged a great programme. We learned (3) in the region and had the chance to taste the products. The theme park trip (4), but we all had a great time on the final boat trip down the river — that was the real highlight.

This is a special year for the Association because it's 25 years since we were founded. In Malatte, they're planning to mark this by (5) in the municipal park. We've been discussing what to do here and we've decided to plant a poplar tree (6) We considered buying a garden seat to put there, but the authorities weren't happy with that idea.

In terms of (7), we've done very well. Our pancake evening was well attended and made record profits. And everyone enjoyed (8) which was nearly as successful. Numbers for our film show were limited because of the venue so we're (9) next year.

We're looking forward to welcoming our French visitors here next week, and I know that many of you here will be (10) The coach from France will arrive at 5 pm on Friday. Don't try to do too much that first evening as they'll be tired, so (11) rather than eating out. The weather looks as if it'll be OK so you might like to plan a barbecue. Then the next morning's market day in town, and that's always (12)

On Saturday evening, we'll all meet up at the football club, where once again we'll have Toby Sharp and his band performing (13) Toby will already be well known to many of you as last year he organised our special quiz night and presented the prizes.

Now on Sunday, we'll be taking our visitors to Farley House. You may not (14)....., so here's a map to help you. You can see the car park at the bottom of the map. There's an (15) where our visitors can buy local produce — it's in the old stables, which is the first building you come to. They're (16), and the shop's in the far corner on the left. There's also a small café on the right as you go in.

I know that one or two of our visitors (17) The main entrance to the house has a lot of steps so you might want to (18) This is on the far side of the house from the car park.

Children will probably be most interested in the adventure playground. That's at the northern end of the larger lake, in (19) that leads to the lake. There's lots for children to do there.

There are a number of lovely gardens near the house. The kitchen gardens are rectangular and (20) They're to the north-east of the house, quite near the smaller lake. They're still in use and (21) fruit and vegetables.

The Temple of the Four Winds is a bit more of a walk — but it's worth it. Take the path from the car park and (22) the stables and the house. Then when (23), take the right-hand path. Go up there with the woods on your left and the temple is right at the end. There are (24)
OK, so that's ..
