A VISIT TO THE THEME PARK

The sun was shining splendidly and the Wong family was excited to spend their school holiday at the Lost World of Tambun theme park. For months, they had been looking forward to their school holiday trip to the park. Kevin was eager to go on the rides. (35) _____.

When they arrived, they were treated to a spectacular dance performance performed by the Malayana Warriors. (36) _____. They spent the day seeing the animals at the petting zoo, going on the rides, and playing in the water. Kevin and his family were having a great time.

As the day went on, the park became more crowded, making it harder to keep track of each other. Kevin was in line for a ride when he realised that Ethan wasn't with him. (37) _____. Unfortunately, Ethan was nowhere to be seen. Then, Kevin informed his parents. They immediately went into a frenzy looking for Ethan.

(38) _____. So, they alerted the park staff. The security team started searching for Ethan. The staff advised them to wait where they first lost Ethan. After 40 minutes of waiting, they got a call from the staff. (39) _____. The family was relieved to find Ethan safe and sound. But Kevin's parents scolded Ethan for leaving without telling anyone.

They thanked the park staff and apologised for the inconvenience they had caused. (40) _____. But this time, they made sure to watch Ethan closely so he wouldn't get lost again. The Wong family left the park that evening, grateful for the kindness of the park staff and Ethan's safe return.
