

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary

A single word can sometimes be used to replace phrases in sentences.

Example: The children visited their grandparents now and then.

The highlighted phrase "now and then" can be replaced by the single word "occasionally".

Choose a word from the list to replace the highlighted phrases.

useless	widow	annually	decide	patriotic
died	neighbours	return	inflammable	simultaneously
correctly	improving	dangerous	immunized	capsized
disappeared	punctual	surrender	fracture	amputated

1. The thief soon went out of sight. _____
2. The people who lived next door moved to St. Lucia. _____
3. The abandoned building was not at all safe to enter. _____
4. His health is getting better every day. _____
5. The homeless man passed away on the street. _____
6. The prisoners were determined not to give themselves up. _____

7. The hotel was owned by a woman whose husband is dead. _____

8. The umbrella was of no use during the storm. _____

9. She could not make up her mind which dress to buy. _____

10. Our teacher is always on time. _____

11. She recited the poem without making a single mistake.

12. The salesman promised to come back again next week.

13. Our school sports is held once a year. _____

14. That fabric is easily set on fire. _____

15. The health care workers received the vaccine in order to ensure that they were protected against diseases. _____

16. When the child fell he suffered a broken bone. _____

17. We must always try to be loyal to our country. _____

18. The children were all speaking at the same time. _____

19. The fishing boat turned upside down during the storm.

20. The man's leg was cut off because it was badly damaged in the accident. _____