I. LISTENING (PART I)

Instructions. You'll listen to the audio from a video, "Why Traveling Is Important".

Please, pay attention and do not answer with your opinion. Every answer must be based only on what you hear in the audio. You'll answer the eight questions in full sentences

1. What are the two main reasons why traveling is considered important?

2. According to the speaker, how does traveling change a person's perspective?

3. What does the speaker say about meeting new people when traveling?

4. How does traveling affect learning, according to the audio?

5. "What does the speaker say about the impact of travel on understanding different cultures?"

6. What example does the speaker give of how traveling helps us grow?

7. How does the video describe the impact of travel on young people?

8. What emotions are associated with exploring new places, according to the speaker?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

II. LISTENING (PART II)

Instructions. Listen again and answer the following comprehension questions.

1. Identify one phrase where the speaker uses the present perfect tense.

2. What benefits of travel are repeated more than once?

3. Which part of the listening clearly explains the main idea?

4. How does the speaker describe cultural experiences?

5. Write one word from the transcript that suggests growth or improvement.

6. Find one example in the text where contrast is used (e.g., 'but', 'however').

7. What metaphor or comparison does the speaker use to describe travel?

8. Identify one sentence that suggests that travel is a form of education.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Use of Language Activity

Instructions. Rewrite each sentence using the word in parentheses. Your sentence must have the same meaning as the original. Use the appropiate verb tense or form. Use full sentences.

Examples:

0.. Traveling always teaches me something new. (never)

-> Traveling never fails to teach me something new.

1. People walk around cities to explore new places. (walks)

2. She always tries the local food. (never)

3. Travelers have learned about different cultures. (has)

4. They never ignore the traditions of others. (always)

5. He visits a new country every year. (have)

6. They explore new cultures every summer. (have)

7. I always pack my suitcase the night before a trip. (never)

8. She learns something new on every trip. (always)

LIVEWORKSHEETS