Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 36.

Vietnamese lifestyle has evolved significantly over the years, reflecting changes in technology, culture, and society. In the past, life in Vietnam was much simpler. Most people lived in rural areas and worked in agriculture, such as growing rice and vegetables. Traditional family life was centred around farming and local festivals. Meals often included dishes made from local ingredients, like fresh rice, fish, and vegetables. Transportation was mainly by bicycle or on foot.

Today, the Vietnamese lifestyle has changed in many ways due to modernization and urbanization. Cities like Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City are now bustling metropolises with skyscrapers and busy streets. Many people live in apartments or modern houses and use motorbikes or cars to get around. Fast food and international cuisines are popular, and traditional Vietnamese food is often enjoyed at restaurants. Technology plays a significant role in daily life; smartphones and computers are commonly used for communication, work, and entertainment.

Shopping has also changed with the rise of malls and online stores. However, despite these modern changes, traditional values remain important. Family ties and community connections are still strong, and cultural festivals continue to be celebrated with enthusiasm. Vietnamese people blend modern conveniences with their rich cultural heritage, creating a unique lifestyle that respects tradition while embracing progress.

Question 31. What is the main idea of the reading passage?

A. Traditional Vietnamese food is only enjoyed in rural areas.
