

ADJECTIVE NOUN

Transform the sentences using the adjective nouns structure.

Example:

Her daughter is studying in a school of English.

Her daughter is studying in an English school.

1. We don't understand this homework of chemistry.

2. I watched some interesting programs on TV last night.

3. The children should not jump on the sofas of the living room.

4. Where is the remote control of the stereo?

5. My son really dislikes soup made of onions.

6. She has to do a trip of 1 hour to go to school.

SAXON POSSESSIVE

Rewrite the sentences using the possessive ('s).

Example:

This dog belongs to Adam. It's very friendly.
Adam's dog is very friendly.

1. That house belongs to Frieda and Janet. It's very old.

2. The twins have a new teacher. He isn't very nice.

3. James has a girlfriend. She is French.

4. I have five cousins. Their house is very big.

5. The son of Luisa and Manuel is sick.

6. The name of the son of the brother of my mother is Gildardo.