Phrasal verbs: separable and inseparable

1. These sentences all contain separable phrasal verbs. Replace the words in italics with a pronoun.

   He turned on the light. He turned it on.
   She's taken off her boots. She's taken them off.

   a. He took up golf when he retired.
   b. We picked up Spanish very quickly.
   c. I looked up the words in my dictionary.
   d. They brought up five children really well.
   e. I've given up smoking at last.

2. These sentences all contain inseparable phrasal verbs. Replace the words in italics with a pronoun.

   She takes after her father. She takes after him.

   a. Nearly everyone got through the exam.
   b. We looked after their cats.
   c. He gets on well with his sister.
   d. I'm looking for my glasses.
   e. They're looking forward to the holiday.
   f. We couldn't put up with the noise any longer.

3. Complete the questions with one of the words in the box.

with	up	to	after

   1. Who do you take _____ in your family?
   2. Do you get on well _____ both your parents?
   3. Have you recently taken _____ any new sports or hobbies?
   4. Do you often look _____ words in a dictionary?
   5. Are you looking forward _____ going on holiday soon?
   6. Do you pick _____ foreign languages easily?
   7. Have you got any bad habits that you want to give _____?

LIVEWORKSHEETS