

USED TO & DIDN'T USE TO

I. Read.

When Kim was a child, she used to have small but fun birthday parties every year. She didn't use to invite all her school friends, she only used to invite her best friends: Mark, John and Lily, and of course, her family.

Her grandmother used to make a big chocolate cake, her mom used to decorate the room, and her dad used to take group photos.

Everyone used to dance and wear party hats, but Kim used to wear a princess crown. Also, her family and friends used to sing happy birthday and Kim used to blow out the candles after that. Finally, Kim, her family and friends used to eat cake and drink chicha morada.

Kim used to have a lot of fun on her birthdays!
