

Eating Disorder

- Q1 George Turnip was a highly respected vegetarian but the press were making serious about him.
 (a) accusations (b) insinuations (c) intimations (d) allegations
- Q2 George denied everything and said he would any newspaper which dared to print stories about him.
 (a) sow (b) see (c) sue (d) sew
- Q3 George had a very well paid contract with a television advertiser of garden peas and he didn't want to fall out the company.
 (a) of (b) with (c) over (d) under
- Q4 The contract stated that he would never eat any meat
 (a) whatsoever (b) whosoever (c) howsoever (d) whichever
- Q5 Wherever George went, journalists would follow him to try and find a way to him.
 (a) exhort (b) exercise (c) expose (d) extract
- Q6 Even in his own house he was not safe because cameras would on him.
 (a) spy (b) speak (c) spook (d) spoof
- Q7 Once he was photographed eating in his dining room and the caption read: 'A picture of a eating sausages'.
 (a) freak (b) frump (c) frame (d) fraud
- Q8 As it turned out these were not sausages but in fact very big carrots and the photographer had to pay enormous
 (a) harms (b) hurts (c) damages (d) injuries
- Q9 In the end the pressure became too much for George and he confessed his secret.
 (a) guilt (b) guilty (c) gilt (d) gilded
- Q10 He admitted eating a meat pie every day. As the news headlines announced: '..... vegetarian eats his own words'.
 (a) Bogus (b) Bonus (c) Bulbous (d) Bilious