

Simple Present (3)

- Q1 The moment he crossed the doorstep, an old school friend comes up to Andrew, to buy him a drink and tells him not to look so worried.
(a) begs (b) requests (c) asks (d) offers
- Q2 Andrew showed him the headlines: "Petrol prices rise again" — "But you haven't got a car" said his friend — "I know" retorted Andrew — "still it means everything will go up in price, too."
(a) too (b) else (c) other (d) also
- Q3 Everyone in the pub looks depressed at this remark and begins to think of all the price increases that will follow.
(a) ideally (b) conveniently (c) suitably (d) easily
- Q4 The is palpable. Then suddenly the door bursts open and in walks our heroine, Sally looking like a drowned rat.
(a) boom (b) bloom (c) room (d) gloom
- Q5 Most people in the pub think to themselves: "What a pretty girl" Andrew sees her as someone who is and needs help.
(a) drenched (b) drowned (c) draped (d) downed
- Q6 He walks over to her and asks if she is right.
(a) everything (b) some (c) all (d) total
- Q7 For probably the first time in his life Andrew actually his worry from himself to someone else.
(a) preferred (b) transferred (c) offered (d) differed
- Q8 And he mixes her a drink to protect her from a possible cold.
(a) unusual (b) speciality (c) specialised (d) special
- Q9 The conversation went as follows: "I hear you live in this village, too" — "How do you?" asked Andrew.
(a) discover (b) find (c) know (d) realise
- Q10 But Sally changed the subject. "This drink tastes delicious. How did you make it?" — "I put a drop of ginger ale and a piece of lemon in the alcohol and then thoroughly."
(a) stir (b) beat (c) mash (d) fork