Expressions with 'ill': 'ill at ease', 'ill-mannered'

Q1 A Christian should abandon all ..... toward the person they forgive.

(a) ill will (b) ill timing (c) ill manners (d) ill at ease

Q2 Impolite, foul-mouthed parents invariably produce ....., foul-mouthed children.

(a) ill-timed (b) ill-advised (c) ill-mannered (d) ill-gotten

Q3 The president clearly felt a little ..... with some of the protesters' rhetoric, but he eventually agreed to talk to them.

(a) ill gotten (b) ill mannered (c) ill at ease (d) ill advised

Q4 To end suffering completely, one must remove desire, ... and ignorance.

(a) ill will (b) ill manners (c) ill timing (d) ill at ease

Q5 The decision of the Sri Lankan selectors to rest Marvan Atapattu for the third test match was ..... and dangerous.

(a) ill gotten (b) ill at ease (c) ill timed (d) ill mannered

Q6 Using their ..... and extraordinary financial resources and insider dealing, the oligarchs gained control over much of Russia's political apparatus.

(a) ill mannered (b) ill gotten (c) ill timed (d) ill advised

Q7 According to the Small Business Association (SBA), "Inadequate or ..... financing is a major reason for small-business failure."

(a) ill mannered (b) ill at ease (c) ill advised (d) ill timed

Q8 Today's youth is far more disorderly and ..... than in the past, and it is not just a minority but the vast majority.

(a) ill gotten (b) ill timed (c) ill mannered (d) ill at ease

Q9 Some immigrants of middle-eastern descent currently living in Oregon still feel ..... after the September 11th terrorist attacks.

(a) ill advised (b) ill at ease (c) ill mannered (d) ill gotten

Q10 The world has suffered more from the ravages of ..... marriages than from virginity.

(a) ill-advised (b) ill-at-ease (c) ill-gotten (d) ill-willed

 © www.english-test.net

LIVEWORKSHEETS