

1/Put the words in the right tense or form:

Every Saturday, my family (go) to the local market. The market (be) very busy with lots of (person) buying fresh fruits and vegetables. My mom always (make) a shopping list before (our) leave home. The vendors (sell) many different things like apples, oranges, and bananas. I (help)..... my mom carry the heavy bags. The market (have) a friendly atmosphere where everyone (know) each other.

2/Put the words in the right tense or form:

Last week, we (visit) a new farmer's market downtown. It (be) much (big) than our usual market. The tomatoes (look) very fresh and red. We (buy) some delicious strawberries that (taste) incredibly sweet. The weather was perfect for (walk) around and (explore) all the different stalls.

3/Put the words in the right tense or form:

My grandmother (teach) me how to choose the (good) fruits and vegetables (in) the market. She always checks if the fruits are ripe by (smell) them gently. When we (find) something we like, she (ask) the vendor about the price. She is very good at (get)..... the best deals. I learn a lot from (watch) her shop at the market.