

Front of the Class - Multiple Choice Questions (Part 3)

1. How does Brad's relationship with Nancy begin?

- A. They meet through a dating app
- B. She is a fellow teacher
- C. They meet at a support group
- D. They meet on a blind date

2. What challenge does Brad face in his relationship with Nancy?

- A. She doesn't understand his condition
- B. He is afraid of being rejected because of his tics
- C. Her parents disapprove
- D. They live in different states

3. How does Nancy react when Brad opens up about his Tourette Syndrome?

- A. She laughs
- B. She's confused
- C. She accepts and supports him
- D. She walks away

4. What major recognition does Brad receive for his teaching?

- A. A promotion to principal
- B. A Teacher of the Year award
- C. A national scholarship
- D. A bestselling book deal

5. How does Brad react to being nominated for the award?

- A. He's shocked and emotional
- B. He rejects the nomination
- C. He expects it

D. He is indifferent

6. What does Brad emphasize in his speech at the award ceremony?

- A. His academic achievements
- B. His love for sports
- C. The importance of believing in every child
- D. The challenges of standardized testing

7. Who attends the award ceremony to support Brad?

- A. Only his students
- B. His parents, Nancy, and his colleagues
- C. Just his mom
- D. The school board only

8. What impact does Brad's award have on the perception of Tourette Syndrome?

- A. It is ignored
- B. It receives national attention and creates awareness
- C. It causes controversy
- D. It leads to new research

9. How does Brad's father react to his award?

- A. He remains distant
- B. He doesn't attend
- C. He expresses pride and reconciliation
- D. He downplays the achievement

10. What does Brad write and publish by the end of the film?

- A. A novel
- B. An autobiography
- C. A children's book
- D. A teaching manual

11. What is the message Brad shares in his book?

- A. Success comes from fame
- B. Everyone needs to work alone
- C. Challenges can be turned into strengths
- D. Never trust anyone

12. How is Brad's story used by others after his book is published?

- A. It becomes a curriculum
- B. It is turned into a movie
- C. It is forgotten
- D. It is criticized

13. What is Brad's overall teaching philosophy shown by the end of the film?

- A. Control and discipline come first
- B. Academic scores are most important
- C. Every child deserves to be believed in
- D. Technology enhances learning

14. What role does Nancy continue to play in Brad's life?

- A. She becomes a co-teacher
- B. She helps manage his foundation
- C. She becomes his wife and supporter
- D. She leaves to pursue her career

15. What best summarizes Brad's journey in the film?

- A. A man who overcomes adversity to inspire others
- B. A teacher who never struggles
- C. A father searching for meaning
- D. A boy who runs away from his problems