

Comprehension

Read each of the following questions. Then choose the letter of the best answer.

1. You can infer that the speaker is pleased to meet the audience in "I'm Nobody! Who are You?" because the
 - A. speaker capitalizes the word "Nobody"
 - B. exclamation points indicate excitement
 - C. speaker compares other people to frogs
 - D. audience answers the speaker quickly
2. What kind of figurative language is contained in the first line of "Is the Moon Tired?"
 - A. a simile
 - B. a metaphor
 - C. an inference
 - D. personification
3. How does the moon change in lines 5–8 of "Is the Moon Tired?"
 - A. It looks happier as the night ends.
 - B. Night continues to make it look beautiful.
 - C. It stops looking tired as the night continues.
 - D. It switches from bright to faded as the night ends.
4. Lines 2–3 of "I'm Nobody! Who are You?" support the inference that the audience
 - A. answers "yes" to the speaker's question
 - B. argues with the speaker often
 - C. loves being with Frogs
 - D. has many good friends
5. In "I'm Nobody! Who are You?" the speaker's dislike for telling "one's name" in line 7 is shown when the speaker
 - A. tells the audience to listen to "Somebody" people
 - B. encourages the audience to "advertise"
 - C. refers to the audience as a "Nobody"
 - D. says that the "Somebody" people talk to a Bog
6. Which excerpt from "Is the Moon Tired?" indicates the passing of time?
 - A. "shows papery white"
 - B. "scales the sky"
 - C. "looks so pale"
 - D. "her misty veil"